Home Address: _____

Each year parents/legal guardians must show proof of residency by executing a declaration under penalty of perjury or an affidavit signed by a parent or legal guardian with whom the child resides.

- Parents must provide TWO DIFFERENT proofs of residency (one from each category below).
- Proofs are categorized below as Category I and II and at least one proof from each category is needed. California State Law and Ross Valley School District have determined these to be the only acceptable proofs of residency. California State Law and Board Policy also reflect that your actual street address must appear on any documentation submitted for the purposes of proof of residency. Documentation showing a Post Office Box will not be accepted.

Provide 1 proof from each category below.
